

Unique and detailed risk assessment of Dala Township, Yangon, Myanmar to help urban planning, early warning system development and prioritize city financial planning for disaster risk resilience. All the initiatives are unique approaches for adaptation to increasing climate induced natural hazard risks with a scope for scaling up and scaling out in other countries in the region.

Dala Township

New Insight into Social, Infrastructure and Environmental Vulnerability

Assessing Slow Onset Disasters

Real-time Intelligence for Rapid Disaster Response

Real-time Disaster Visualisation in 3D VR Based on Space Data

Community Engagement