

Improvement of sanitation and lifestyle with provision of safe water

Purified water leads to improved hygiene.

This lowers the risk of diarrhea, among other illnesses caused by lack of sanitation.

Hearing survey at Wanasari, Indonesia in 2006

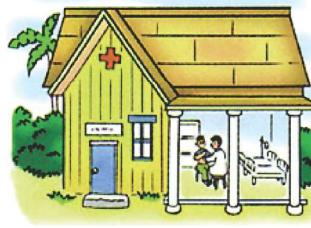

Villages

Suitable for the sites with no access to public water supply nor piped water.

Schools

Hygienic habits will be improved. (washing hand etc.)

Hospitals

Useful for washing medical instruments etc.

Construction site

Suitable for site with difficulty to access clean water

Improvement of Lifestyle

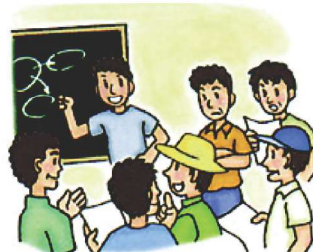

Improve Sanitary situation

Awareness of importance of safe water and sanitation.

Free from Fetching Water

Create the time to access to education and work for economic assets

Promote self-government

Operate self management to raise running cost etc.

Encourage Community development

Start of new business in community such as water delivery service etc.

